Two Monarchs Meet.

The Czar Arrives at Germany's Capital.

WELCOMED BY THE EMPEROR.

Russia's Ruler Royally Received and Many Courtesies Extended Him by the Germans—Other Dispatches from the Old World.

BERLIN, Oct. 12.—The czar has arrived here. The czar was accompanied by the Grand Duke George, his second son. Emperor William, several of the royal princes, Prince Bismarck, Count Herbert Bismarck, and a number of generals and court officials received the czar and grand duke at the Lehrter station. The czar was attired in the uniform of the German Alexander regiment, of which he is honorary colonel. He and Emperor William embraced repeatedly.

CZAR.

After their greeting was over, the czar turned to Prince Bismarck and shook hands with him. He also held a brief conversation with the chancellor. The members of the czar's suite were then presented to the suite of Emperor William, after which the guard of honor defiled before the czar, the band playing the Russian national hymn. The party then proceeded to the state carriages, which were in waiting, and drove through the Brandenburg gate, across the Koenigsplatz, and to the Russian embassy, the horses going on a fast trot for the entire distance.

As the imperial carriages passed the Brandenburg gate a park of artillery began firing a salute of 101 guns. The streets along the route were plentifully decorated with flags and bunting, but the crowd which had gathered did not cheer as the rear passed along. Emperor William wore the uniform of the Russian Wyborga regiment and had on his breast the decoration of the Russian order of St. Andrew. Prince Bismarck also wore his Russian orders.

The admirals attached to the British channel's squadron, which is now at Kiel, were present at the station when the czar arrived, and were saluted by him.

Emperor William before leaving the Russian embassy sat down to a luncheon with the czar and his party. Count Schorveloff, the Russian ambassador, presided, and was the first to raise his glass to welcome the czar, after which he called for three cheers, and there was a hearty response. The band played the Russian anthem, and then the czar toasted Emperor William. The two engaged in an animated conversation until the emperor left the embassy at half-past 12. Bismarck did not accompany the emperor, but remained at the embassy and held a conference with the czar, which lasted fully an hour and a half. Later the czar drove out in an open carriage, surrounded by cavalry, and paid a visit to the Empress Augusta and to the Empress Frederick.

The dinner in the White Hall of the Schloss took place yesterday evening, and there were 140 covers. The czar wore the uniform of a German Uhlan regiment, and was seated between the emperor and empress, with Prince Bismarck as his vis-a-vis. Emperor William drank to the welfare of his honored friend and guest, and to the continuance of the friendship between their two houses, which had been maintained for over a hundred years, and which he was resolved to cherish as a sacred legacy from his ancestors.

The czar drank to the welfare of the Emperor William and thanked him in French for his friendly sentiments. He then drank to Bismarck, who rose in recognition of the honor, emptied his glass and bowed low. Emperor William showed a like courtesy to Count Schorveloff, which was acknowledged in the same way.

A Britisher's View.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The correspondent of The Daily News at Berlin says that the czar's toast to Emperor William at dinner last evening at the castle was expressed in the few possible words, which were spoken in such a tone of voice that the words were scarcely audible to those sitting a few feet away. His words inspired no enthusiasm, but, on the contrary, produced the impression of a cold draught. The emperor spoke in German until he reached the conclusion of his remarks when he expressed the sentiment in good Russian—"Long Live His Majesty, the Czar Hurrah!"

Doomed Financiers.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—Attachments were issued in Paris yesterday against the property of nine of the directors of the bankrupt Comptoir D'Escompte, which was ruined by the failure of the copper corner. Six of the responsible directors of the institution are imprisoned, having been convicted of violating the banking law in advancing the funds of the bank on loans upon copper certificates. The directors and accountants were sentenced to pay to the liquidators of the bank for the benefit of its creditors the sum of £780,000 and to stand committed until the amount is paid.

This means a life sentence to most of those convicted, as they were themselves ruined by the calamity their illegal action brought upon the bank. Several of the directors who are involved in the sentence took no active part in the management of the institution, and though technically guilty with the rest, really knew nothing of the recklessness with which the money of the institution was staked upon a gambling venture. Efforts are being made to secure relief for these men from the terms of the sentence, and they will in all probability be successful.

RAILROAD COLLISIONS.

One Man Killed and a Number Injured Near Bridgeport, Ohio.

MARTIN'S FERRY, O., Oct. 12.—A collision occurred two miles west of Bridgeport, at 6 o'clock Friday morning, between the miners' train of two passenger coaches, containing about seventy miners, en route to the Wheeling Creek coal works, and a freight train of twenty-two cars southbound. Both locomotives were demolished and also two passenger cars and eight freight cars. Five trainmen and thirteen miners were injured, three of the latter fatally. The collision was caused by a misunderstanding of the freight conductor. The freight train had orders to look for the work train and not to pass the Wheeling Creek mine until after the arrival of the work train. This order was disregarded and the collision resulted. The engineers and firemen and many miners jumped and saved their lives. A miner named Moore has died from his injuries.

The list of killed and injured as far as could be ascertained is as follows:

Killed—David Moore.
Injured—Samuel Tracy, three ribs broken and injured internally; will die; Nathan Clay, bruised about the head and body, probably fatally hurt; David Richardson, arm broken in two places, shoulder dislocated, will recover; John Johnson and Thomas Marden, legs crushed, very serious; William Stitt, leg and foot crushed, will recover.
Eight or ten others were injured, but their wounds are not serious.

Death of a Common Pleas Judge.

CANTON, O., Oct. 12.—Word has been received here of the death at his home in Carrollton, last night, of Judge Robert Roley, one of the common pleas judges for this district. He had been holding court here this week. His death was occasioned by a fall from an apple tree, in which he was picking fruit. He fell on a picket fence below and one of the pickets entering his side broke two ribs and caused an hemorrhage. Judge Roley was one of the best known men in this section of the country and a leading attorney at Carrollton for years.

Too Much Celebration.

St. Joe, Mo., Oct. 12.—On Oct. 1 Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ambrose commenced celebrating their tenth wedding anniversary. Yesterday Mrs. Ambrose died from excessive use of whisky and starvation, while her husband is in a critical condition and not expected to live. They commenced drinking on the date mentioned and kept it up ever since, having looked themselves in the house. The husband was removed to the hospital and does not know of his wife's death. Both Ambrose and his wife were addicted to drink and went on similar sprees every two or three months.

Collision of Freight Trains.

FREDERICKSTOWN, O., Oct. 12.—A collision between two freight trains on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at this place yesterday afternoon caused a bad wreck. About twenty cars and two engines were thrown from the track. A second freight train dashed into the rear of the first southbound train before a flagman could be sent back, making three trains in all that were wrecked. All train men escaped by jumping. Some of them were seriously injured. Loss is estimated at about $20,000.

Went Through an Open Switch.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 12.—Passengers on the Vandalia line report a serious wreck this side of Terre Haute. The train went through an open switch and the engine and two cars were wrecked. Engineer Edward Miller was thrown under the cab and injured internally, from the effects of which he may not recover. The fireman saved himself by jumping. Several valuable horses, en route from the races at Terre Haute to the tracks at Lexington, Ky., were fatally injured.

Switchmen Strike at Toledo.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 12.—The switchmen in the yards of the Pennsylvania railroad in this city struck last evening for higher wages. Business in the yards of that company, as well as in the yards of the Hooking Valley and Ann Arbor railroads, is suspended. The men assert that they will not return to work at the old wages and the companies say they will make no concessions.

A Carpenter Injured.

AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 12.—While hoisting timbers to the top of a new factory yesterday the apparatus broke and fell to the ground, carrying three men with it. One, David Forrest, a carpenter, was injured, perhaps fatally. The other two escaped with slight bruises.

Out on Bail.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—Allen O. Myers was released from the county jail yesterday on $1,000 bonds, and went to Cincinnati last night. The case was taken on error and a suspension of sentence secured until the question is finally disposed of.

Monetary Pressure.

Apprehensions Felt Over the Financial Market.

SHIPMENTS OF GOLD ABROAD

Nearly Ten Million Dollars Sent Over the Ocean During the Past Week—Crops Are Large and Business Heavy in the Interior—Failures.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: The government crop report was very encouraging, but the loss of gold by the great foreign banks—over $1,100,000 by England, $4,000,000 by Germany and $4,200,000 by France—was large enough to increase apprehensions of monetary pressure. Large shipments went from London to Brazil and Egypt.

These two opposing influences ruled the markets during the week; crops are large and business heavy, and the commercial outlook most favorable, but money is comparatively close, and there is a possibility that it may be closer yet. At New York thus far there has been no increase, but rather a relaxation of pressure, and foreign exchange is unaltered since last week. The outward movement of products is large, exports from New York for two weeks exceeding last year by 16.1 per cent, while the increase in imports is but 3 per cent. Large foreign investments of capital in American industrial enterprises are reported, and of late no considerable foreign selling of securities. But the movement of money to the interior continues large, the treasury alone forwarding $525,000 on Thursday.

Reports do not indicate increasing pressure in the interior money markets, for, though tightness at Philadelphia, considerable stringency at Cleveland continues, and the market is firm at Boston, and the demand is active at all cities reporting, the supply at nearly all is ample and the anticipated rise in rates at Chicago does not yet occur. At Philadelphia, as here, there is more confident feeling, and the treasury during the past week has made considerable purchases of bonds, and in all disbursed $4,100,000 more than it has taken in. The volume of trade is increasing at nearly all interior points reporting, and this involves a larger demand for money. The bank clearings last week were 24 per cent. larger than last year at New York, 2 per cent. smaller at Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago, but 11 per cent. larger at all other cities taken together. This increase at points where speculative activity has least influence indicates a greater volume of legitimate business than has ever been recorded at this season in any previous year, and the heavy railroad earnings, 10 per cent. above last year for September, tell the same story.

The great industries are making progress. Several more furnaces of the largest size have gone into blast since Oct. 1, and the weekly output on that date was over 150,000 tons a year ago, an increase of 44 per cent. in September and 153 per cent. for the year. In spite of this enormous production, prices are not only sustained by consumption, but are slightly advanced, though southern iron is still sold here below $17, for No. 1 white $17.25 to $18.50 is quoted for northern. Bar iron is in better demand; structural and plate works are crowded, and sale of rails within ten days have reached 350,000 tons, many large companies having made their annual contracts for renewals of track. The quotation at eastern mills is $31 to $32. Sales of wool at Boston have been 2,158,000 pounds, and more demand is seen there, but less at Philadelphia, where concessions in price are still thought necessary. Carpet mills are at work full time, but claim to be making scarcely any profit; of the worsted and the woolen goods mills few in that region are full time. The market for woolen goods here and for clothing at Philadelphia is considered more encouraging.

The government crop report was rather a surprise to many, as it shifted wheat receipts from "a fraction over 12" to 12.6 bushels per acre, making the probable yield not much below 500,000,000. The acreage is still somewhat uncertain. The corn report indicates the largest crop ever raised; the same may be said of cotton, with the proper reservation that early frosts may yet greatly reduce the outcome. With heavy crops business in all departments will be stimulated and at the same time the demand for money will be increased, for of late wheat exports have been moderate, and though cotton goes out more largely than a year ago, it is at least in part against bills negotiated some time since. The wheat market was rising when the crop report came, and shows still an advance of 14 cents for the week, but with a declining tendency and sales of only 18,000,000 bushels, while corn is 4 and oats 4 cent lower and cotton 4 cent lower, with sales of 533,000 bales in a week. Fork products are not much changed, coffee and sugar a little weaker, oil and the minor metals substantially unchanged.

Another indication of the general prosperity is seen in the large sales of boots and shoes, though prices were never so low at any previous time, and leather, just now quoted firm, is as low as at any time in thirty-five years. The coal trade is disappointing, and actual prices are much under the schedule, while wages are said to be 10 per cent. lower than a year ago. At Pittsburgh, however, the trade is improving, and the glass trade good, and factories of all kinds better employed than a year ago. In the stock market there was a decline until the 7th, then some recovery, and on Friday another sharp depression, partly due to continued weakness in trust stocks but more largely to monetary pressure and to the more threatening state of controversies at the west about rates.

The comparatively slow movement of grain at present prices also has an influence. But the market for railroad stocks is so far free from public interference, and in such strong hands, that serious depression has not been generally apprehended.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days, as reported to R. G. Dun & Company, the mercantile agency, by telegraph, number, for the United States, 182, and for Canada, 32, or a total of 214, as compared with 206 last week, and 192 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week last year the figures were 237, representing 193 failures in the United States, and thirty-four in the Dominion of Canada.

THE ENCAMPMENT ADJOURNS.

Report of the Committee of Ritual Received and Adopted—Considerable Business Carried Over Until the Next Encampment—A Grand Banquet at Willard's Hotel Finishes Up the Week's Program.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Out-going trains have taken with them many of the visiting knights, and the Mount Vernon excursion boats have taken several thousands to the tomb of Washington, so there is a perceptible diminution in the crowd that has swarmed the streets since last Sunday.

The grand encampment met at 9 o'clock yesterday morning and at 2:30 took a recess for an hour. There was a small attendance at the meeting as many of the delegates had gone to Mount Vernon. No business of public interest was transacted. The committee on ritual had not reported up to the hour of recess.

After recess the report of the committee on ritual was received and adopted with great unanimity. It is understood that no radical changes were made. The essentials were adopted and the ceremonial were committed to the same committee for consideration and report at the next triennial meeting. The encampment also considered the irregularities resulting from a misconstruction of the law that were alleged to have been committed by Col. Olcott, eminent commander of Washington Commandery No. 1, and they were declared illegal. After the transaction of considerable routine business the encampment adjourned at 6 p. m. sine die.

The banquet last night given by the knights of Washington to the grand encampment at Willard's hotel was the last formal event on the program of the convalescent week and was a great gathering. Covers were laid for 232 guests. Past Grand Master Roome was unable to attend, owing to indisposition resulting from the arduous work of the past week. Sir M. M. Parker, of Washington, occupied the seat of honor at the table. The banquet opened at 8 p. m. and feasting and speech-making was kept up till long after midnight.

The Marion was at Chemulpo, Korea, the Palos at Kobe, Japan, and the Monocacy at Yokohama. The Palos was expected to sail from Kobe for Nagasaki on Sept. 19.

EDDYVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12.—The escape of two convicts, Henry Poindexter, serving a sixteen year term, and Marion McBride, six years, was discovered at the penitentiary at roll call last night. Pursuit was at once commenced with the bloodhounds.

Fined, Jailed and Disfranchised.

BRAZIL, Ind., Oct. 12.—A Horn and G. Wells were yesterday fined $400 and $500 respectively, sentenced to thirty days in jail and disfranchised for five years for stealing a buggy wheel and harness and burning a reaper in the field.

Killed by Falling Coal.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 12.—Peter McManus, a coal worker at one of the mines here, was killed this morning by a fall of fifty tons of coal. Two Polish miners were badly injured.

BARGAINS IN CLOTHING!

NOT NEWSPAPER BARGAINS,

↳ BUT MATTERS MATERIAL IS WHAT THE MULTITUDE ARE GETTING FROM OUR HOUSE↳

We are proud to say that our efforts to procure goods for our patrons, of the highest standard, at the lowest prices, are fully appreciated. The crowds that throng our store daily (in fact we owe apologies to many of our friends for tedious waits) signifies that we have what the people want, and AT THE RIGHT PRICES. From to-day on we will give our stock of Overcoats a chance to come to the front. So busy with Dress Suits the past month we had no chance to say or do anything with Overcoats.

TALK ABOUT OVERCOATS,

you MUST see our various lines. There are good Chinchillas, honestly made and trimmed, at from $3.50 to $5.00; Storm Overcoats that defy Siberian Blasts, $6.50 to $10; fine Chinchillas, Fur Beavers and Montagues at from $10.00 to $15.00. These garments are equal to custom-made that cost twice as much. Then, mothers, you must take a peep at our little fellows' CAPE OVERCOATS. Why we have some little beauties, handsomely made and trimmed, that we sell as low as $3. We saw the same style marked $5.00 in the window of one of the most prominent Clothing houses in Cincinnati—in fact the identical garment; and really they are worth $5.00, but we can afford to and do sell them for $3.00. We have a large quantity of SILK, PLUSH and FUR CAPS, suitable for little Girls as well as Boys. Come and see them.

SATURDAY, OCT. 12, 1889.

The leaders of the Republican party in Kentucky were formerly "rebel" Democrats—Swope and Bradley. They thought the Republican party would butter their bread if they left the Democratic party, and they were right. The g. o. p. takes care of all rebels who come into its ranks. Look at Lonstreet, Mosby, Mahone, Chalmers, Swope and Bradley!—Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat concedes the fact that "nearly every representative Democratic gathering this year, not only endorsed Cleveland's Administration, but spoke of him in terms which denote that he has not lost his hold upon the affections of the great masses of his party," and it says: "The conclusion is irresistible that if the Democratic National Convention were assembled to-day, Grover Cleveland would be made the standard-bearer of the party."

ASSISTANT SECRETARY of the Interior Bussey has knocked out another one of Mr. Tanner's remarkable rulings in the pension office, and has kicked up a lively stir by the scathing manner in which he went for the Ex-Commissioner. The ruling had neither the color of law nor the authority of precedent, says Mr. Bussey. How these Republicans do score each other when they get at loggerheads. Mr. Bussey's letter furnishes accumulative evidence of the reckless manner in which the pension office was being conducted by the present administration.

The worst boomerang yet in the Ohio campaign is that ballot box scheme which the Commercial-Gazette of Cincinnati has been prating so much about the past two weeks. Halstead has been charging that John R. McLean, of the Enquirer, and Hon. James E. Campbell, the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, were directly interested in the scheme, and has published an alleged contract implicating Campbell and bearing what purported to be Mr. Campbell's signature. In yesterday's issue of the Gazette, Mr. Halstead acknowledges that the alleged signature was fraudulent and a base forgery. Foraker and his gang are getting desperate, but forgeries won't save 'em this time. A few more Topp letters and ballot box schemes, and the Democrats will sweep Ohio in November.

"If Chalmers and Mahone, with their military and political records, were Democrats, where would be the Republican paper that would let a day pass without a fling at them?" asks the Detroit Free Press. "Being Republicans, how easily are the facts that one is notorious for his part in the Fort Pillow massacre and that the other urged the starving of Union prisoners, forgotten! The condition of mind which prepares the stomach of the average Republican editor to receive and assimilate everything which the party providence sends it is a peculiar one, and perhaps it is fortunate, in view of all which that stomach, fed at such a table, must endure. Chalmers was once a bugaboo to frighten bad children into good behavior, and Mahone even now forces the Republican of Virginia who goes to bed in the dark to cover his head; but then 'everything goes' when party policy prescribes."
